Father Bill Sheehan, OMI, has been deeply committed to Contemplative Outreach since it was founded in 1983 by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO. For more than two decades he has led centering prayer workshops and retreats throughout the United States and abroad. This weekend marks his seventh retreat in Hampton Roads. He has a rich background as a pastor, director of ministry to priests, novice director, director of formation, provincial, and director of the Oblate House of Theology. In addition to his centering prayer ministry, he serves on the Advisory Board of the quarterly magazine Human Development. Currently he lives in the St. Eugene House Oblate Residence in Lowell, Massachusetts.

Letting Go will guide us to deepen our centering experience and focus on the consent to God's invitation to love and be loved. The willingness to turn our life and will toward our creator loosens ties that bind us to an over-identification with the false self. Centering prayer plays an essential role in our transformation, as we learn to be free of distractions, attachments and addictions—whatever obstacle that prevents us from feeling the presence of the divine indwelling. Stepping away from the busyness and pace of life, we answer the call to be companions on this journey, with each other and with the Holy Spirit.

Fr. Bill will use scripture and theology, as well as fundamentals of human development and psychology to explore the power of letting go and living in the present moment. Lectio divina, or divine reading, will be included in our weekend centering practices.

Schedule

Our weekend will begin with arrival on Friday evening at 6:00 p.m., followed by dinner, and end on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. The weekend schedule will include:

- ❖ Centering Prayer Sessions
- ❖ Time for quiet and rest
- ❖ Opportunities for questions/sharing
- ❖ Celebration of Eucharist

Cost and Room Arrangements

The cost for the retreat is $160.00 per person for a double occupancy room. Six single rooms are available on a first come-first served basis for $210.00 each. You may indicate your roommate choice on the registration form—every effort will be made to accommodate your choice. All meals and accommodations are included in the fee. Most of the gathering for this weekend will be in the Walter Sullivan Meeting Room. The Mary Chupein Lending Library available for your use has over 2,500 volumes and 1,000 audio cassettes.

About The Well

The Well is a Christ-centered retreat facility open to people of all faiths in the farmland of Smithfield, operated by the Catholic Diocese of Richmond, Virginia. Tom and Linda Ashe are The Well directors. There are overnight accommodations for 32 retreatants. Overlooking a spring fed lake are four hermitages, each with four rooms. The rooms have two single beds and a private bath. Two of the rooms are larger and handicap accessible, allowing the use of wheelchairs. Each room also has a desk, chair and chest of drawers. Linens and towels are provided. The bed is made when you arrive, and you are asked to remake the bed with clean linens before you depart. You are invited to say a prayer for the next person who will use your room.
