Mothers and Daughters: Their Part in Building the Family

Mothers and daughters are invited to spend time together. 230 acres of country beauty is the setting for listening, sharing, and celebrating the vital bond between mothers and daughters.

If your mother or your daughter isn't available bring another person who has been a maternal influence in your life. The day includes lunch, an experience of the land, conferences, time to talk, and prayer.

Mark you calendar for Saturday, May 1, 9:30 a.m. - 2p.m.

Suggested donation of $75 for two persons.
